

Burnout Contest Rules

- * Tires cannot have more than 35psi air pressure
- * Tires cannot have any visual dry rot or side wall damage
- * Drivers must have a valid drivers license
- * Drivers must wear long pants, closed-toe shoes, and a DOT approved helmet during their run.
- * No passengers allowed
- * Drivers must have an in-car fire extinguisher. Extinguisher must be strapped down and in arm's reach
- * Seatbelts must be present in vehicle and worn at all times during the event
- * Drivers must wear safety glasses or have their helmet visor down during the burnouts
- * Vehicle cannot have any severely damaged or broken body parts (management's discretion)
- * Absolutely no oil or fuel leaks
- * Drivers cannot be under the influence of drugs or alcohol
- * Vehicle must have a battery hold down
- * Vehicle must have a functional gas cap and radiator cap
- * Vehicle must have at least one working headlight and taillight
- * COOLANT/ANTIFREEZE IS NOT ALLOWED. All participating vehicles are required to run ONLY water in an effort to maintain track surface integrity

*

*Burnout vehicles need to be tech inspected behind the Holley trailer on Saturday between 1:00 pm 2:00 pm.

You have 1-minute to do the biggest burnout possible! So, let the smoke roll!

Must be a registered participant to enter.